

Network of Communauto stations being studied for the integration of electric vehicles

The first phase of implementation of electric vehicles in the Communauto network is planned for 2011. A second phase will complete the electric fleet in 2012.